TRAVIS CLOER

"Jersey Boys"

Travis Cloer is truly one of the most expressive vocalist & impressive stage personalities to have come along in quite some time. His range is not only remarkable, but at the same time effortless and full of nuance.

Travis can currently be seen playing Frankie Valli in the TONY and GRAMMY award winning musical JERSEY BOYS, where he's been called "transformative". After playing the role on Broadway, he joined the Las Vegas production that has been voted numerous times the "best show on the Strip" by the Las Vegas Review Journal.

Travis Cloer has been in the Las Vegas Jersey Boys production from day one. He grew up in Kansas City and graduated from Kansas State University after studying musical theater. He loves jazz, and has released a CD of him singing jazz songs. He once hurt his vocal chords during the middle of a show, and had to leave the production for three weeks for it to heal.

He has a baby girl (Andi), who was born in April 2012, along with a young son. His wife, Jen Cloer, is a former dancer in the Sirens of T.I. show at the Treasure Island. She and Travis met when they were both working as entertainers on the Celebrity Cruise line.

As a featured soloist with both the Abilene & Las Vegas Philharmonics, his performance was called "Amazing" & "Classy, Jazzy, & Rat Pack smooth!"

Crowds jumped to their feet at his sold out appearances at Cabaret Jazz at The Smith Center for the Performing Arts. His show, "Setting the Standard", filled the room with some of the best jazz, pop and Broadway music the room has seen. The Las Vegas Sun says, "He's one of Vegas' most accomplished showmen."

"Christmas at My Place" is the quintessential Holiday show and fills audiences with the warm feelings of the season. You never know which star from Broadway, the Screen, or the Strip will join Travis for a tune.

With The Smith Center having become the Las Vegas home of Broadway musical productions, Jersey Boys will probably hold the all-time record as the longest running Broadway show to play the Las Vegas Strip. Jersey Boys closes on September 18, after more than eight-plus years and 3,300 performances (divided between two Strip hotels).

His next project is "Travis Cloer with a twist", on July 25th, 7:30 PM in the Grandview Lounge at the South Point Las Vegas.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Fellow Rotarians:

Thank you to all of you (and your family members) who showed up on Saturday for our "Rotarians at Work" day at the Salvation Army. This is just one more example of the kind of community service Rotary is known for. And a special thank you to the 25 Club and new member, Erik Astramecki, for coordinating everything and getting the paint and equipment donated for the project.

I am so proud to belong to this club. You've heard me state that my one BHAG (big hairy audacious goal) for the year was to make everyone so darn proud of being a member here that they would never want to leave. OK, maybe a little idealistic, but in my heart that is what I truly want all of you to feel. You are generous with your time and with your money. You welcome new people with open arms when they come to visit and encourage them to join if they want to be a vibrant part of our community. You support our schools and find ways to make life better for the kids we serve. You are proud of our military, and support our veterans and airmen at Nellis AFB. You volunteer your time to help shape the leaders of tomorrow through TLC and RYLA. You give generously to make Santa Clothes the best day of the year for 330 children and show them by example what good citizens look like. And you support Rotary International as it strives to eradicate polio and provide clean water around the world.

We've been enriched with wonderful speakers this year. They educated, informed and entertained us. The incredible staff at Lawry's have done everything possible to give us a great environment for our meetings. Each week we remember, "Thursday is Rotary".

I am honored to have served as your President during this 2015-2016 Rotary year, and I know that members of the Las Vegas Rotary Club have truly been "A Gift to the World". You've certainly been a gift to my world and I thank you for your friendship and support. I know that our club is in good hands as we prepare to turn the gavel over to David Thorson.

Thank you all!

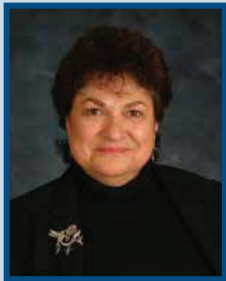

Mary Ann Avnet

President 2015-2016
