

Jasmine Sligh, MPH

Program Manager Cleveland Clinic

Jasmine Sligh joined the Cleveland Clinic in 2014 and is currently the Program Manager for Caregiver and Community Education. She earned her Bachelor's degree in Biology from Morgan State University where she continued her education and earned a Master's Degree in Public Health. As a public health advocate she has worked as a clinical research coordinator on several clinical trials across a multitude of specialties including endocrinology, oncology, and most recently neurology. It was in that role that she developed an understanding that the care-partner needs as much if not more support than the patient. Switching roles from direct patient care, she now oversees the many community education and support programs offered at the center.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

Last week provided yet another example of just how powerful a group of leaders like ourselves can be when we get together and rally around a cause. Over the course of two evenings while enjoying the sounds of Wynton Marsalis and later turning wine into water we raised a combined total of over $1,700 to support the SOAR Awards and One Drop.

A big thanks to leaders like Jaime Goldsmith for arranging the Marsalis event and Arlene Sirois for organizing a great Wine to Water event. I would also like to give special recognition to Sarah and Don Brown for not only hosting the Wine to Water event, but also for inviting so many of their friends who helped make the event a smashing success and exposed a whole new set of people to the Rotary world.

Given that for the balance of October we will also be building houses in Mexico, seeing one of our members make his MMA professional debut while raising money for the club, read with children at two of our supported schools, enjoy a tailgate party at UNLV and hit the home stretch on our Canned Food Drive competition against the Kiwanis, we are truly demonstrating our motto of "Service Above Self"!

The following quote seemed an apt bit of perspective to go with our activities this month:

"One should always be drunk. That's all that matters...But with what? With wine, with poetry, or with virtue, as you chose. But get drunk."
— Charles Baudelaire, circa 1850s

There is a possibility that I might have accomplished all three last week!

David Thorson
President 2016 -2017

p.s. we had three people who correctly identified last week's verse (Stu Lipoff, Francesca Gilbert and Michael Gordon). It was written by the ancient Greek playwright Aristophanes who was a humorist and a bit of an anti-establishment commentator in his time. You might find his bio interesting if you have a free moment to look it up.
