MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Rotarians,

The word “Magic” is defined thus by Merriam Webster – “an extraordinary power or influence seemingly from a supernatural source”. As we highlighted through our fun little superhero theme last week, our club has proven that there is extraordinary power in leaders like ourselves getting together and applying our collective talents to solving problems in the community.

This month our club turns its magic to supporting our schools in their efforts to create universal literacy in Las Vegas and to helping feed the hungry with our friendly Canned Food Drive competition with the Kiwanis Club.

Today’s theme of magic combined with the fact that next week this inspiring (sic) election cycle will thankfully come to a close, also gives me the opportunity to give you another shot at identifying some prose (Rotary references added through creative license):

The world is full of compromise, and infinite red tape
But Rotary has the magic, it’s your one chance for escape
So turn me on – turn me up - it’s your turn to dream
A little magic power makes it better than it seems...

I’m young, I’m wild and I’m free
I’ve got the magic power of Rotary, in me!

David Thorson
President 2016 -2017
