

Nehme Abouzeid Vegas Golden Knights

Nehme E. Abouzeid is the Senior Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer for the Vegas Golden Knights. He joined the organization on November 7, 2016.

From 2013 - 2016, Abouzeid was the Executive Director of Brand Marketing for Wynn Las Vegas (NASDAQ: WYNN), the city's most profitable casino resort and the world's most awarded brand. In this role, he oversaw brand marketing, advertising, content marketing, entertainment marketing, sponsorships and partnerships, and the brand's official magazine, among other duties.

Abouzeid spent the past 13 years in global gaming as it grew into a $180 billion industry with the expansion of Las Vegas-style casino resorts worldwide. During tenures with two of the industry's leading Fortune 500 companies, he played integral roles in launching some of the world's largest casino resorts and orchestrating innovative cross-industry partnerships.

Prior to his time with Wynn, Abouzeid spent nine years with Las Vegas Sands Corporation (NYSE: LVS) in a number of operational, business development and strategic roles. During his time with the company, it grew from a $500M company with one resort to the world's largest casino resort operator with over $11 billion in annual revenues and eight global mega-resorts in its portfolio.

While at Sands, Abouzeid was the first executive to graduate from the company's management program, receiving intensive training in all seven facets of the modern integrated resort industry: gaming, hotel, retail, entertainment, nightlife, food & beverage, and meetings (collectively known as MICE: meetings, incentives, conferences, and exhibitions).

A creative luxury marketer and versatile executive who excels at maximizing revenue across the integrated hospitality enterprise, he has been named to the "Top 40 Under 40" lists of Global Gaming Business Magazine and Vegas Inc., the city's top business journal.

Abouzeid began his career in editorial media. He spent five years as a print journalist and radio producer in Boston, Los Angeles, and post-war Beirut.

He holds a bachelor's degree in journalism from George Washington University and an MBA from Babson College. He is also a certified Project Management Professional (PMP).

Active in the local Las Vegas business and non-profit communities, he has served on advisory boards for the casino gaming conference G2E, KNPR public radio and youth charity After-School All-Stars.

A native of Weymouth, Massachusetts, he lives in Henderson, Nevada with his wife Dr. Nina Mirzayan and their two children.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Rotarians,

Immediate Past President Mary Ann Avnet and I were at Bracken Elementary School yesterday to be interviewed by a national committee that is evaluating Bracken for (another!) national magnet school award.

As we were there and providing our glowing reviews of Katie Decker, the thought again occurred to me that there is a solution to many of our city's education problems and we have had a front row seat in watching it play out. Sticking with the theater analogy, more accurately, I would say our Club has actually played a major supporting role.

So, today as we hear more about all the great business developments such as our new NHL franchise and our acquisition of an NFL franchise, we can also know that the Las Vegas Rotary Club is addressing some of the other pressing, less glamorous needs of our community.

We are helping to deploy known, tested solutions into our educational system. Our support of Katie's efforts at Bracken, Long and Hollingsworth along with our work at Bracken with Spread the Word Nevada, will be instrumental in making this a world-class city in every respect.

Another day of being a proud Rotarian!

.... and shall I say? ... Go Golden Knights!

David Thorson

- Larry Tomsic introduced the speaker, Deputy Director for the Nevada Department of Corrections, Brian Connett. Brian explained that the main purpose of the Department of Corrections is to rehabilitate 80% of the inmates who will be released and reintegrated back into society. There are 1.5 million inmates in the United States and 14,127 in Nevada. The aging population of inmates puts a strain on the system. The average cost to tax payers per year is $21,000 per inmate. Nevada keeps its cost down by having the lowest staff to inmate ratio which makes the Nevada Department of Corrections one of the lowest operating budgets in the country.
- President David Thorson presented the speaker with the Sole Power award and adjourned the meeting.
