George Crockett

George Crockett died Sunday morning of a heart attack. He was a 50-year resident of Las Vegas.

George was inducted into the Rotary Club of Las Vegas in October, 1959 and maintained continuous membership. On many occasions he offered his airplane for Rotary's charitable activities and to attend meetings in California. Since 1965, the annual demotion parties for club presidents have been held on the grounds of his home.

George was the founder and builder of the Alamo Airways Airport, located where McCarran International Airport is today. In the late 1940s, following a complicated series of transactions, the Alamo Airways Airport changed hands from George to Clark County.

In the final transaction, he was paid $45,000 and given a lease for 40 acres of ground on which he operated Alamo, a company that serviced non-airline airplanes. Following the 1967 sale of Alamo to Summa Corp., George retired.

He was born on March 31, 1912, in Unionville, Mo. He attended aviation school in Missouri before he arrived in Las Vegas.

He is survived by his wife Margaret of Las Vegas; daughters, Catherine of Las Vegas and Darla Jean of San Mateo, Calif.; sons Chris of Reno and George of San Mateo; seven grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

George is a great-great-grandson of the legendary Davy Crockett of Tennessee.

Memorial services will be private. Instead of flowers, the family has asked that donations be sent to the Boy Scouts of America, Boulder Dam Area Council in George's name.

$50 CREDITS STILL AVAILABLE

The following lucky Rotarians can get a $50 credit if they know the answer to the following question and give it to President Ken, in writing, prior to the announcements from the podium. Here is this week's question:

June 9, 1934 is the birthday of one of America's most famous personalities. Whose birthday is it?

And here are this week's participants:

John Kobberoe, President, Ratel Radio Inc.; Joe Leveque, Owner, St. Francis Animal Hospital; Mark Marakis, Financial Planner, IDS American Express; Pat Miller, Executive Director, Frontier Girl Scout Council; Vince Sanner, Retired, Senior Active; Bill Southard, Retired, Senior Active; Jim Corey, Concessions Director, Circus Circus Hotel, Craig Hamilton, Owner, Dr. Craig R.W. Hamilton; Marguerite Widener, Exec. Dir., Marguerite's Specialties, Inc.; Bob Winkler, General Manager, Bullock's, Las Vegas.

This stuff will continue for the next three weeks or more.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Rob Moore and Robert Brinton will conduct the Calcutta as a prelude to the Rotary member-guest golf tournament to be held at Spanish Trail on Tuesday, June 5. A reminder to participants — there will be shotgun start at 7:30 AM. Donuts and coffee will be available for players who are still asleep.

In 1992 under the leadership of President Rob Moore the Las Vegas Rotary Club made an initial grant that helped to establish the Clark County Aviation Museum. George Crockett, a long time member of the club, built the private airfield that became McCarran Field. With an additional grant and the donation of documents and artifacts from the Crockett family the museum opened in 1993.
