Desiree Reed-Francois

UNLV Director of Athletics

Desiree Reed-Francois has more than two decades of leadership experience as an athlete, attorney and athletics administrator. She became the Director of Athletics at UNLV on June 1, 2017, and oversees all aspects of the athletics program; including general operations, fiscal affairs, facilities, strategic planning and external relations. She is the first Hispanic female athletics director at the FBS level.

At Virginia Tech since 2014, as executive associate athletic director and later as deputy athletic director, she served as second-in-command to the athletics director and was responsible for external relations and day-to-day operations for 22 sports, more than 600 student-athletes, and 14 facilities. An administrator with an eye toward balancing the complex external and internal facets of a Power Five athletics department, Reed-Francois partnered on budget development for all athletic units at Virginia Tech, prepared the department's facilities master plan, redesigned fundraising strategy, and revitalized the university's student-athlete success program.

Reed-Francois earned a bachelor's degree from UCLA, where she was a student-athlete (rowing). She received a juris doctorate from the University of Arizona College Of Law. She is a member of the California Bar and taught law classes at the University of Tennessee and Santa Clara.

A strong advocate for student-athletes, Reed-Francois understands the importance of leadership development and mentorship in ensuring their future success, and says universities should create an environment that supports opportunities to positively impact lives and develop leaders in student-athletes, coaches, and staff.

She is heavily involved in athletics administration at the national level, participating in the Division 1 Athletics Directors Leadership Institute and Fellows Program, the Women Leaders in College Sports' Executive Institute and is a member of the College Football Playoff Committee's operations committee.

Reed-Francois and her husband, Joshua, have a son, Jackson.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Rotarians and visiting Kiwanians

The changing of the leaves and the early nightfall is not only an indication of the upcoming winter, but also of the annual canned food drive competition!

For more than 60 years, our two organizations have helped to solve the local hunger problem in our community by collecting non-perishable food items during the Thanksgiving season. While one of our organizations might claim “bragging rights” for a short while, we know that it is only through our collective effort that homeless men, women and children receive hot, nutritious meals during these cold months.

Let’s use this competition to show our appreciation for the many blessings we each receive and to give thanks to our Creator. Let’s showcase to the world through this vehicle of spirited competition that we CAN live up to our ideals of “Serving the Children of the World” through our individual and collective acts of “Service above Self”.

Michael Gordon
 95th President
 Rotary Club of Las Vegas

News Talk 720 KDWN. Where Las Vegas Comes To Talk.

VEGAS STRONG

To continue our commitment to keeping VEGAS STRONG, and building upon our extraordinary success with our annual spectacular canned food drive -- we are asking for your help and assistance.

The Salvation Army will soon be distributing new toys to over 5,000 homeless children. Certainly, almost everyone will be holiday shopping between now and December 7 -- the date of Santa Clothes and our Holiday Party.

Please consider donating several new toys that will be brought to the Salvation Army for distribution. We will have a "drop off" table set up as you first enter our room at our three next Thursday meetings: November 9, 16 and 30. Toys should be no more than $10 each.

More information will be forthcoming if you would like to help distribute the toys at this major Salvation Army Holiday event. Thank you for helping to bring a smile to these beautiful children and help to make this year's holiday all the more special for them.

4th Quarter Wetzel Awards

The 4th Quarter Wetzel Awards will be held at Nellis Air Force Base

November 30th at 3:00 PM

Please meet at the Visitor's Center located at the entrance to Nellis Air Force Base, corner of N Las Vegas Blvd and Craig Road, promptly at 2:30 PM if you need a ride to the site where the ceremony will be held.
