

Greg Britton

Projects and Goals of AFWERX

A recognized leader in the community, Greg Britton has both public and private sector acumen. Mr. Britton's drive and focused determination for success in the private sector and public sector is recognized by many in the community. He has revitalized, turned around, and led multiple organizations to astonishing results and businesses to record earnings.

Mr. Britton is currently the Interim Director of AFWERX Vegas and holds the position of Chief of Strategic Partnerships with DEFENSEWERX out of Niceville, Florida.

During his tenure in the private sector, Mr. Britton found a new love and passion for his community. His business travels and projects aligned with the targeted industries of the state of Florida and of the Northwest Florida region. Mr. Britton began working with economic development professionals to promote the Northwest Florida Region to companies looking to relocate to Florida. After nearly 30 years in the private sector, Mr. Britton decided to make a career change and practice his passion for economic growth and resiliency for the state of Florida. Mr. Britton joined the Florida Department of Economic Opportunity (DEO) as the Director of the Division of Strategic Business Development in August 2017. During his time at DEO as the Director of Strategic Business Development, Mr. Britton applied his business management style and team building skills to make significant gains within the Division. He built a highly competent team that was accountable and results focused.

Mr. Britton received a Bachelor of Science in Aerospace Engineering from Trine University and serves as a board member on the University of West Florida Board of Trustees and the Florida SBDC Advisory Board.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Today marks the 75th anniversary of Operation Overlord. Operation Overlord was the long anticipated landing of 160,000 Allied troops along a 50-mile stretch of beaches in Normandy, France. More than 5,000 Ships and 13,000 aircraft supported the invasion, and by day's end, the Allies gained a foot-hold in Continental Europe. The operation began the liberation of German-occupied France, and later Europe. The landings expanded into the Western Front and led to the Allied victory over Germany.

While people often refer to Operation Overlord as D-Day, the term D-Day is used by the United States military to refer to the date any operation begins. During World War II, the United States military participated in numerous D-Days in Africa, Europe and the Pacific. Planners also use the term H-Hour to refer to the time the operation begins. Military plans are normally complex and scheduled with daily goals. Those goals are identified as D+1, D+5, etc. All of this assumes the original goals of each D-Day are met. During Operation Overlord, the Allies failed to achieve any of their goals on the first day. The plans were adjusted each day but maintained their reference Operation Overlord's D-Day.

Operation Overlord succeeded because the Allies were determined to rid the world of Germany's Nazi regime. Like the Allies in Operation Overlord, Rotarians have not met their initial timeline to eradicate wild polio. Just as the Allies did in WW II, Rotarians will overcome the delays in their plans and succeed by eliminating wild polio.

THE LAS VEGAS ROTARY CLUB

Toni Kern started the meeting with the invocation.

Ted McAdam led us in song.

Jaime Goldsmith reminded us of the SOAR event and asked for members for their support in attendance.

President Elect Jackie Thornhill reminded us of the Paul Harris Matching funds. She is off to Hamburg Germany for the Rotary International Convention June 1st through the fifth.

Bob Werner reported that there was an international Rotarian who did not show. Sit down Bob.

PP Ginger Anderson was joined for lunch by her mother Joan.

Our Sargent at arms was Dan Adamson who introduced President Jim's wife Judith.

PP and DAG Michael Gordon brought us up to date on the debunking party for President Jim.

PP Michael and President Jim posed for a picture with Francesca Gilbert and her daughters Alyssa and Natalie who were awarded level II Paul Harris Fellowships by their mother.

Carolyn Sparks missed the Joker but doubled her money with a $10 spot.

Francesca's daughter Alyssa won the Lawry Bucks and plans on taking her sister to dinner.

In remembrance of Memorial Day we set up a Missing Man Table.

Kirk Holmes was well dressed for Memorial Day..... Nice Shoes.

Our memorial day presentations were presented by Ted McAdam, Greg Maguire, Walter Parrish and PP Steve Linder. A great reminder to us all that Freedom is not Free.

America's White Table

- This table, set for one, is small, symbolizing the frailty of one prisoner, alone.
- It is set for one, symbolizing the fact that some are missing from our ranks.
- The tablecloth is white, symbolic of the purity of their intentions to respond to their country's call to arms.
- The black napkin represents the sorrow of captivity.
- The single red rose in the vase signifies the blood that many have shed to ensure the freedom of the United States of America. This rose also reminds us of the family and friends of our missing comrades who keep the faith, awaiting their return.
- The yellow ribbon on the vase represents the yellow ribbons worn on the lapels of the thousands who demand a proper accounting of our comrades who are not among us tonight.
- A slice of lemon on the plate reminds us of their bitter fate.
- The salt sprinkled on the plate reminds us of the countless fallen tears of families as they wait.
- The glass is inverted because they cannot toast with us.
- The chair is empty because they are not here.
- The candle is reminiscent of the light of hope that lives in our hearts to illuminate their way home, away from their captors, to the open arms of a grateful nation.
