MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

After hearing Jeff Civillico speak at one of our meetings a few years ago, I placed him on my list of speakers for my year as President. His energy, enthusiasm and obvious talent made a real impression on the membership that day. Is it no wonder that he has founded a non-profit that connects performers with direct service opportunities, performing for hospital patients, seniors, servicemen and women, and those with special needs. Not to be confused with Mark Shunock and his Mondays Dark. Although both are charitable organizations, they differ in their approach with booking performers. Both entities are very successful in our city.

What is the Las Vegas history of giving? Charity Navigator, the largest independent charity evaluator wrote an article in July of 2018 listing their top 5 Nevada charities. And, to my surprise and delight, one of the top 5 is an organization that our Club supports, Spread the Word Nevada. They received the highest possible rating of 4 stars with a near-perfect score. How many of you are aware that our own Rotary International Foundation is on their list of perfect scores? Four stars and 100% achievement in all their categories? So, as we move deeper into improving early childhood literacy with the new signature project of our Foundation, Together, We Read and partnering with Spread the Word Nevada, imagine how we will impact the lives of children, parents and grandparents!

Most of you are aware that our local sports team, the Vegas Golden Knights and the soon to be Las Vegas Raiders, both have charitable foundations. Where have these foundations been awarding their contributions? To bring attention to the global day of giving fueled by #GivingTuesday, the Raiders Foundation, for the third straight year, helped kick start the giving season with surprise "blitzes" to three Las Vegas nonprofit organizations: Wreaths Across America, Spread the Word Nevada and Southern Nevada Pop Warner Football. Notice who is among this list? The Vegas Golden Knights Foundation focuses in specific areas such as, kids' growth through sports, health and wellness, public schools teaching and learning. Military, first responders, hunger and homelessness in Las Vegas round out the list of recipients.

I have asked my programs chair, Dr Andy to book a few more non-profits. It is my hope that our club membership will find the information from the carefully selected speakers worth hearing and will open our eyes to previous unknown information.

As the year continues, we will hear from two entities that risk much to provide hope to their area of focus. Their worlds, one locally and one internationally, along with the other charitable organizations we have heard from and those we will hear from, I know will inspire us to think and take action.

The individual’s playlist should include music that evokes these 3 feelings: Unsettling, Soothing, or Energizing (USE). A pilot program was created at Shepherds Air Force Base has proved to be very successful and hopefully will grow to other bases such as Creech or Nellis.
