

Dr. David Glenn Weismiller

Why Healthcare Recommendations Are Constantly Changing

David Glenn Weismiller, MD, ScM, FACP is Professor of Family Medicine at the new medical school of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. An active clinician and educator, Dr. Weismiller provides full-scope care that includes inpatient care and maternity care.

He is a graduate of Jefferson Medical College of Thomas Jefferson University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He completed his residency at the University of Virginia Health Sciences Center in Charlottesville and a fellowship in Maternal-Child Health and graduate degree in Epidemiology at Brown University School of Medicine, Providence.

A proponent of “reflection in practice” and “learner-centered instruction,” he is recognized internationally for his work in continuing medical education and faculty development. Having taught board review programs for the American Academy of Family Physicians (AAFP) for more than 25 years, he is the founding and current chair of the AAFP Family Medicine Board Review Express™, as well as the AAFP annual Family Medicine Update course. He is a frequent presenter at AAFP Family Medicine Experience and teaches American Board of Family Medicine Knowledge Self-Assessments throughout the country. Dr. Weismiller is the author of numerous publications on issues related to women’s and children’s health, and he is an advocate for empowering individuals to make sound health care choices. He was recognized in 2018 as a “Best Doctor” in Desert Companion’s Annual List.

On a personal front, David is an avid fan of the performing arts. His love of music and theater is lifelong. One of his other favorite avocations is presidential history. Born and raised in our nation’s capital, he is on a venture to visit all of the libraries of our US Presidents of the past 120 years.

David lives in Henderson with his partner Brian DeLong. They have three amazing adult daughters Hillary, Meredith, and Bronwyn.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome back to the start of a new Rotary Program year. This year, like every new program year, presents us with challenges and opportunities which we will approach with anticipation and excitement. Some of the challenges may actually be opportunities. While the Covid virus has caused RI to temporarily suspend the polio virus eradication program just when we were about to cross the finish line, the opportunity to find an innovative way to reach that finish line may present itself. We are, after all, the masters of solving public health problems like polio, and safe drinking water, and sanitary sewage facilities, so it would be only natural that we come up with a way to make this the year that we eradicate polio, as RI has predicted.

And to those who despair at the state of international relations, which we worried about before the Covid virus grabbed all the headlines, they should and perhaps will, look to RI for help. It was RI we should remember that took the lead in the formation of the United Nations, with the goal of fostering world peace and understanding, after the devastation of the great depression, followed by World War II.

Our local economy is recovering slowly, but our local schools still face an enormous problem. Our club's childhood literacy programs can help, but can we do more? In households where all parents work, how will they deal with a portion or all the week with distant (i.e. at home) learning keeping kids at home?

We are all energetic, resourceful, and innovative people. We joined Rotary, and Rotary accepted us, because we are leaders in our community who want to serve. Our roadmap for that service is laid out in detail in the four points described in "The Object of Rotary" and in the easier to memorize, "The Four-Way Test". Our highly successful Santa Clothes program has demonstrated that when we partner with other Rotary clubs here in the Valley, we can accomplish extraordinary service above self. We will look for more opportunities to do just that in the coming program year.

With so many challenges and opportunities ahead of us for the coming year, I have to wonder where our new RI President Holger Knaack got his inside information that caused him to pick as his theme for this year, "Rotary Opens Opportunities" for all of its members and all who we serve? It will be a privilege to serve our club's members as your club president in this exciting year. No one has been shy about telling me what I should or should not do as club president. Please keep it up, it is your club. I cannot promise to make everyone happy, but I do promise to listen.
