

Dr. Bo Bernhard

UNLV's International Gaming Institute

As a fifth generation Nevadan, Dr. Bo Bernhard calls Las Vegas home, but he works frequently in national and international jurisdictions spanning all six inhabited continents. As the Executive Director of UNLV International Gaming Institute (IGI), Bernhard oversees all of IGI's research and academic functions. Recently, Dr. Bernhard was additionally appointed as Interim Vice President of Economic Development for UNLV. He has delivered over 200 keynote addresses in clinical, regulatory, and government settings and is published in the top business and social science journals.

Rotary Opens Opportunities

WHAT IS ROTARY?

Rotary is a global network of 1.2 million neighbors, friends, leaders, and problem-solvers who see a world where people unite and take action to create lasting change – across the globe, in our communities, and in ourselves.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Waiting to Be Asked, or to Ask

One of the most rewarding things about Rotary is the opportunity to make a positive difference in our community and in our world. The primary way that Rotarians do that is by our service. The primary way we accomplish that service to others is through our group effort. We plan and organize that group effort in our club committees.

If you want to be more active in our club's service but are waiting to be asked to join a committee, your wait is over. Consider yourself asked to join the committee that you would like to be a part of. Similarly, if you are a committee chair and would welcome more help, do not wait any longer, reach out to any of our members and ask.

Everyone is busy and has numerous demands

Eco-friendly service projects help environment

Through the years, Rotary has carried out thousands of projects to protect the environment. In just the last five years, we've allocated $18 million to projects that help our planet.

Members have even more opportunities to focus on issues that are important to them, now that the environment is one of the causes we focus on. Read how Rotary members are already supporting the environment.
