

Dr. Pedro 'Joe' Greer, MD

Founding Dean of Roseman University

Dr. Greer joined the University on June 1, 2020 with the goal of establishing an innovative mid-21st Century, Las Vegas-based medical school that will align students, educators, and community in designing and delivering an inclusive and collaborate environment for learning, healthcare and research. Previously, Dr. Greer served as Professor of Medicine, Founding Chair of Humanities, Health, and Society; and Associate Dean for Community Engagement at Florida International University Herbert Wertheim College of Medicine in Miami, Florida.

Working with various FIU colleges, Dr. Greer spearheaded the nationally recognized Green Family Foundation Neighborhood Health Education Learning Program (NeighborhoodHELP). This program prepares medical students and other health professions students to address the social determinants of health through a hands-on longitudinal experience caring for underserved households in Miami-Dade County. Better known as "Joe," Dr. Greer has been an advocate for health equity by engaging communities to create effective health and social policies and accessible health care systems.

He established Camillus Health Concern, Inc. and Saint John Bosco, health centers for underserved populations in Miami-Dade County, Florida. He has received numerous recognitions, including: one of the 500 Most Influential Business Leaders in Life Sciences listed on the Florida Trend 2019; June 2019 AMA Foundation Pride in Profession Award; Bob Graham Center for Public Service 2017 Citizen of the Year; 2014 National Jefferson Award in the category of Greatest Public Service Benefiting the Disadvantaged; 2013 Great Floridian Award; the 2009 Presidential Medal of Freedom; and in 1993, was honored as a MacArthur Foundation "Genius Grant" Fellow. He has published more than 30 articles and book chapters and wrote Waking Up in America, a book about his life experiences, including caring for homeless individuals and advising Presidents Bush Sr. and Clinton on health care policy. Dr. Greer is currently a Trustee at the RAND Corporation (America's oldest and largest think tank) and is the Chair of the Pardee RAND Graduate School Board of Governors. He served as Chair for the Hispanic Heritage Awards Foundation from 2002 to 2012, and is an independent board member of American Funds 2016 to present.

He completed his medical studies at La Universidad Católica Madre y Maestra in the Dominican Republic. He trained in Internal Medicine, served as Chief Resident, and completed two post-doctoral fellowships (Hepatology and Gastroenterology) at the VA/University of Miami Miller School of Medicine in Miami, Florida. Before joining FIU, Dr. Greer ran a successful private practice and was Chief of Gastroenterology and Hepatology at Mercy Hospital in Miami.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Next Monday is Labor Day.

Many celebrate it as an unofficial end to summer, where children have gone back to school and cooler fall temperatures are almost here.

Like many holidays, we often celebrate them more because of the time we get off from work, not for the true meaning of the holiday. However, have you ever stopped to think about why we do celebrate Labor Day?

Labor Day was a creation of the labor movement and is dedicated to the social and economic achievements of American workers. It constitutes an annual national tribute to the contributions workers have made to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our country.

Beginning in the late 19th century, as the trade union and labor movements grew, trade unionists proposed that a day be set aside to celebrate labor.

“Labor Day” was promoted by the Central Labor Union and the Knights of Labor, which organized the first parade in New York City. In 1887, Oregon was the first state of the United States to make it an official public holiday. By the time it became an official federal holiday in 1894, thirty states in the United States officially celebrated Labor Day.

Why is Work Important?

- If you work, you can earn money to buy the things you need and pay your bills.
- When you work, you contribute to the community.
- Having a good job can also make you happier and healthier.
- Last but not least, when you have a job or a career, you have self-respect, dignity, and self-worth.

We want to recognize the hard work of our Rotarians. Our Rotary Club was founded on hard work – it takes work to find time for weekly meetings, it takes work to serve the community, it takes work to raise funds for our great causes, it takes work to belong to an international organization that helps make our world better.

As Martin Luther King said,

“No work is insignificant. All labor that uplifts humanity has dignity and importance and should be undertaken with painstaking excellence.”

To all the WORKERS in Rotary, the many volunteers, those who step up and become a committee chairperson, serve on the Board of Directors, help run one of our fundraising events or those that help at our weekly meeting . . . THANK YOU!

Mike

ROTARY FINANCES

As a global organization that operates in nearly every country in the world and deals in 29 currencies, Rotary takes stewardship of its funds seriously. Our money is spent on life-changing, sustainable grants, as well as programs and services that support our members' transformative work. Rotary International has invested more than $3 billion in thousands of projects over the past 100 years.

Financial Structure

The Rotary Foundation is organized as a public charity operated exclusively for charitable purposes and governed by a Board of Trustees. The operations of Rotary International, a member organization, are overseen by its Board of Directors. The headquarters of Rotary International and The Rotary Foundation are in Evanston, Illinois, USA. We have associate foundations in Australia, Brazil, Canada, Germany, India, Japan, and the United Kingdom.

Financial Reports

Rotary International publishes an annual report, audited financial statements, and our federal tax returns each year. Rotary International and The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International are separate entities with distinct reporting requirements. Under United States tax law, they are both tax-exempt organizations.

The Las Vegas Rotary Foundation

In April 1998, the Las Vegas Rotary Club created the Las Vegas Rotary Foundation, Inc., a not-for-profit organization that is supported solely by voluntary contributions from members of the Rotary Club of Las Vegas and friends of the Foundation. This year, we hope to break the $3 million mark of our endowment. The mission of the Foundation is to secure the resources necessary to support the Service Mission of the Rotary Club of Las Vegas: "Teaching Youth to Succeed through Literacy, Education, and Life Skills Development". The Foundation has given more than $300,000 dollars to support service projects of the Rotary Club of Las Vegas, including:

- Santa Clothes
- Breakfast with Books
- Salvation Army
- Junior Achievement
- Bracken, Beckley, Hollingsworth & Long elementary schools
- Cure 4 the Kids
- Jet Foundation

Tiberti Fellowship

The Foundation takes pride in recognizing contributions of any size. Those who give $1,000 or more (or in whose name a donation of $1,000 or more is made) are acknowledged as Tiberti Fellows. Mr. J.A. Tiberti, a 60-year member of our club, was also recognized as one of the "founding builders" since his construction company was literally involved in building Las Vegas. Any club member who gives $100 will be recognized a "Tiberti Sustainer" and recognized quarterly in the Wheel and annually in the club roster.
