MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

This week marks the 20th anniversary of the attacks by Islamic militants on America in New York, Virginia and Pennsylvania.

On the morning of September 11, 2001, al Qaeda terrorists hijacked four commercial airliners in a planned attack against the United States. These terrorists intentionally flew two jet airliners into the World Trade Center's Twin Towers in New York City and a third aircraft into the Pentagon in Arlington, Virginia. A fourth aircraft, United Airlines Flight 93, crashed into an open field in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, killing all passengers, crew members, and terrorists on board. The four aircraft strikes killed nearly 3,000 people, the deadliest attack on American soil by a foreign entity.

I imagine that all of us know where we were 20 years ago when those tragic events occurred. I was in San Francisco at a conference. I was stuck until I realized planes weren't going to fly soon. I rented a car and drove to my home in Henderson.

This Saturday we will stop, be reminded and hopefully reflect on that event, the heroic first responders that fought to save lives and gave their lives in the process. In addition, so many families lost loved ones who were in the twin towers or were on the flights.

Nearly one-fifth of the country is too young to remember firsthand the day that changed everything. Memorials have been created to help us remember, reflect and educate.

Remembering is not merely a state of mind. As those who beseech us to never forget the Holocaust or other tragic events have long insisted, remembering is important, key to our progression and evolution as a people.

Spanish philosopher George Santayana is credited with the aphorism, "Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it,"

Memories help us to manage time past, enhance time in the present, and provide continuity and meaning for times to come. The stories of a person, a family, a culture, a country — they hold us, bind us in ways which are generally beneficial, and give us an identity. As we learn and reflect on the challenges, struggles and successes of our ancestors we gain wisdom, peace and understanding.

This week, let us reflect on the courage and sacrifice of first responders. Let's remember the men and women working in the area or were on flights that lost their lives. Tragedy can strike at any time so let's also remember to be kind to our loved ones and others.

ROTARY YOUTH PROGRAMS

Rotary believes in developing the next generation of leaders. Our programs help younger leaders build leadership skills, expand education and learn the value of service.

Rotary Youth Leadership Awards

Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA) is an intensive leadership experience organized by Rotary clubs and districts where high school students develop their skills as a leader while having fun and making connections.

Rotary Youth Exchange

Students learn a new language, discover another culture, and truly become global citizens. Exchanges for students ages 15-19 are sponsored by Rotary clubs in more than 100 countries.

Interact Clubs

Interact clubs bring together young people ages 12-18 to develop leadership skills while discovering the power of Service Above Self. These young citizens find out how serious leadership can be seriously fun.

Breakfast with Books

The Las Vegas Rotary Club, in conjunction with Spread The Word Nevada, participates in the monthly Breakfast With Books program at Beckley Elementary School. Club members distribute books, juice and snack to disadvantaged students and those accompanying them.

After the books are distributed, there is a group reading session.

Santa Clothes

Sponsored by Southern Nevada area Rotary Clubs and spearheaded by the Rotary Club of Las Vegas, the beloved "Santa Clothes" program provides much needed shoes, socks, winter clothing, mentoring and a sports ball gift to at-risk children from throughout the Las Vegas valley during the Christmas season.
