

Deputy Chief Kelly McCahill

Las Vegas Metro

Deputy Chief Kelly McCahill has been a Law Enforcement professional with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department (LVMPD) for over 24 years. Kelly has held positions in Patrol, Community Oriented Policing, Internal Oversight and Constitutional Policing, Internal Affairs and Human Resources. In 2012, when the Department of Justice entered into an agreement to conduct the first ever Collaborative Reform Process with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, Kelly was chosen as the sergeant to assist in the creation of the Office of Internal Oversight and became the main liaison with the Department of Justice. From 2012 through 2014,

Kelly was a member of the team that implemented numerous groundbreaking reforms related to the use of deadly force by officers. Many of these reforms are now counted as best practices around the country.

In 2013, Kelly promoted to lieutenant and proudly served in the Bolden Area Command where she led efforts in community engagement and crime fighting. In 2015, Kelly was assigned to the Critical Incident Review Team which conducts all administrative investigations of deadly force incidents by officers. In March of 2017, Kelly promoted to captain and was assigned to run the Internal Oversight and Constitutional Policing Bureau which oversees the criminal and administrative investigations into use of deadly force and other high-risk incidents involving LVMPD officers. Kelly was then assigned as the bureau commander of South Central Area Command where she commanded a station of 210 officers and civilians in one of most diverse areas within the Las Vegas valley.

In February of 2020, Sheriff Lombardo appointed Kelly to Deputy Chief of the Professional Standards Division. Currently, she oversees Human Resources, Internal Affairs, Police Employees Assistance Program, all Department training and the LVMPD volunteer program.

Although Kelly loves working for the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, her greatest joy comes from being married to Kevin McMahon, retired LVMPD Undersheriff, and raising their five children together.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Our theme for this new Rotary year is “Serve to Change Lives.” Incoming Rotary International President Shekhar Mehta is urging members to become more involved in service projects. He teaches that caring for and serving others is the best way to live because it changes not only other people’s lives, but also our own.

It’s easy to get caught up in the hustle and bustle of life only to feel emotionally empty. When I was 18 and down in the dumps, a wise friend said, “Service is the best medicine for the soul.”

“It’s a Wonderful Life” walks us through the life of George Bailey: a man who, despite his ambitions to travel the world, spends his whole life in his hometown of Bedford Falls running the Building & Loan company his father left behind.

He struggles to keep the business afloat and prevent the villainous Mr. Potter from taking over the entire town. At the end of his rope one Christmas Eve, George is given the “rare gift” of seeing what the world would be like if he had never been born.

Without his influence, George sees his little world of Bedford Falls in a bizarre, fallen state, the people closest to him destitute and alone in “Pottersville.” He realizes how much his life—one that before he saw as wasted in a “shabby little office”—is really worth.

Now that the pandemic is scaled back, we have a great opportunity to help those in need. Rotary provides so many great opportunities to serve. Let’s give our all this year and take many opportunities to serve. As President Mehta says, as we serve others we will bless our lives as well as theirs.

It is with great honor and humility that I take the helm as the Las Vegas Rotary Club’s 99th president. I am looking forward to a great year working with you to serve our community.

Mike
