

Aldo Martinez

President Las Vegas Board of Realtors

Aldo Martinez, is a 44 year resident of the greater Las Vegas area, he would almost qualifies as a native except he was made in Cuba and assembled in Nevada. He has lived in Henderson most all his life, except for a military hiatus of 22 years, where he served in the US Army and retired as a Sergeant Major.

He attended school here as well at Basic High School where he would have graduated if it weren't for that expulsion thing. Sheds some light into why he joined the military, it was either that or jail. (Just kidding) Aldo bounced back from those memorable days and received his Associates degree from Vincennes University and most recently his Bachelors of Science in Business Administration from the University of Phoenix.

Aldo began his real estate career here in Las Vegas in 1993, with American Group Better Homes and Garden and is now the Managing Broker of Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices, Nevada Properties - Southwest Branch. Aldo currently over sees 200 plus agents at the Southwest Branch and serves on Professional Standards and Chairs Bylaws for the Greater Las Vegas Association of REALTORS'.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

The Olympics have been underway for almost two weeks and conclude this weekend. The Olympic games are an inspiring tribute to healthy competition, international cooperation, and the pursuit of exceptional performance.

Time and again we watch resilient and highly driven athletes reaching deep inside to triumph over adversity. I remember many inspirational stories from the Olympics.

Jesse Owens wasn't "supposed" to win. He was black and was competing in track and field in 1936 Berlin. Hitler's Germany saw Owens as a lesser athlete because of the color of his skin. Owens would go on to win four gold medals. When Owens finished competing, the African-American son of a sharecropper and the grandson of slaves had single-handedly crushed Hitler's myth of Aryan supremacy.

Until 1996, the United States had never won a gold medal in Women's Gymnastics as a team. Hence, there was a lot of pressure, hopes, and support for the U.S. team. Kerri Strug famously landed a one-legged vault in the team competition moments after badly injuring her ankle during an awkward landing on her previous vault. Her decision to continue helped Team U.S.A. win the team competition Olympic gold medal for the first time in history. In an iconic moment, her coach, Bela Karolyi, carried her out with her ankle bandaged to stand with her team and receive her gold medal.

Derek Redmond, a British runner competing in the 400 meters, tore his hamstring halfway through a semi-final race in the 1992 Barcelona Summer Olympics. A favorite for the medals podium, Redmond refused to give up and rose to finish the race despite his intense pain. But the most memorable moment came next, when his father leapt over the railing from the stands and helped his son complete the race. Steps from the finish line and with the crowd cheering them on, he let go of Derek, so his son could cross the finish line by himself.

These athletes inspire us because they were finishers. Winners and losers all have the same goals. Besides talent, which is just a small part of success at any level, what makes winners is the courage to press on. It's something called "grit," a combination of passion and perseverance. As Rotarians, we can demonstrate grit in many ways.

Rotary launched PolioPlus in 1985 and was a founding member of the Global Polio Eradication Initiative in 1988. Through decades of commitment and work by Rotary and our partners, only two countries have never stopped the transmission of Polio, Afghanistan and Pakistan. Today, more than 18 million people who are currently healthy would have been paralyzed by the virus.

Locally, several members of our club have demonstrated passion and perseverance in building our Santa Clothes program, now in its 26th year. What started by serving about 35 children in 1995 has grown to serve more than 350 needy children per year and almost 6,000 since inception.

We're starting several new programs this year. To succeed, we need passion and perseverance to stick to it when things get little attention and times are tough. We need volunteers with grit to help us make an impact. Each one of us is needed. Please volunteer and help us create new legacies that will create an impact!

THE FIRST FOUR ROTARIANS

On February 23, 1905, Paul P. Harris, Silvester Schiele, Gustavus Loehr, and Hiram E. Shorey gathered in Loehr's office for what would become known as the first Rotary club meeting.

Harris' desire for camaraderie among business associates brought together these four men and eventually led to an international organization of service and fellowship.

Each of the first four Rotarians brought different professional perspectives to the organization.

Rotary's founder, Harris, was born in Racine, Wisconsin, USA, on 19 April 1868. He was raised by his paternal grandparents in Vermont and attended the University of Vermont, Princeton, and the University of Iowa. Harris, a lawyer, was Rotary president from 1910 to 1912 and a member of the Rotary Club of Chicago until his death on 27 January 1947.

Schiele, a coal dealer, served as the Chicago club's first president in 1905 and Rotary International's treasurer from July to December 1945. Born in Terre Haute, Indiana, USA, in June 1870, Schiele attended Terre Haute Business College and served in the U.S. Army during the Spanish-American War. He was president of the Schiele Coal Company from 1902 until his retirement in 1939. He and Harris became lifelong friends and lived near each other on the South Side of Chicago. Schiele died on 17 December 1945 and is buried near Harris at Mount Hope Cemetery.

Loehr, a mining engineer, was born on 18 October 1864 in Carlinville, Illinois, USA. He was a Rotarian for only a few years, never holding office at the club or international level. But that first Rotary meeting was held in his office, Room 711 of the Unity Building in downtown Chicago. He died in Chicago on 23 May 1918.

Shorey, a merchant tailor, served as recording secretary during the club's first year. He was a Rotarian for only a few years, too. He was born in Maine, USA, in August 1862 and died in March 1944.
