

Jack Jacobs, Ph.D.

Regenerative Medicine for Treatment of Human Disease

Dr. Jacobs received his BS degree from Davidson College, Davidson, North Carolina and a Ph.D. in molecular biology from Washington University, St. Louis, Missouri. He has been involved in the healthcare industry for over 25 years and has extensive expertise in supervising drug manufacturing operations and the design and implementation of preclinical animal trials and US

FDA-authorized clinical trials.

He started a new department of Biological Chemistry at the pharmaceutical company, Merck, and for 15 years worked as the Chief Science Officer of CardioVascular BioTherapeutics, Inc. where he oversaw FDA-authorized clinical trials in which the angiogenesis drug candidate, human FGF-1, was tested in a number of medical indications, including coronary artery disease, diabetic foot ulcers and peripheral artery disease. He has been continuing these drug development activities with FGF-1 at Zhittya Genesis Medicine, concentrating on the potential role of “therapeutic angiogenesis” to treat neurodegenerative diseases, including Parkinson’s disease.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

The Roman Emperor Marcus Aurelius was born on this day in the year 232. Aurelius was considered a successful general and a conscientious administrator. In his reign of six years, he secured prosperity for the Romans while withstanding repeated invasions of barbarian tribes on almost every sector of the frontier.

Aurelius was not ruthless but was kind and sought to make life better for the meek of the empire, the slaves, women and minors. He was also a prolific writer and is quoted often. His quotes are among my favorites:

“The happiness of your life depends upon the quality of your thoughts. Therefore, guard accordingly, and take care that you entertain no notions unsuitable to virtue and reasonable nature.”

“Waste no more time arguing about what a good man should be. Be one.”

“The best revenge is to be unlike him who performed the injury.”

“The object of life is not to be on the side of the majority, but to escape finding oneself in the ranks of the insane.”

“We ought to do good to others as simply as a horse runs, or a bee makes honey, or a vine bears grapes season after season without thinking of the grapes it has borne.”

“Accept the things to which fate binds you. Love the people with whom fate brings you together, but do so with all your heart.”

“If it is not right, do not do it; if it is not true, do not say it.”

His writings support the second part of our Four Way Test, “Is it fair to all concerned?”

The word “fair” is a subjective term, appealing to open-mindedness, impartiality, freedom from bias or favoritism. This choice of words in point two of the Four Way Test lays upon us a responsibility to decide for ourselves what is fair. As Rotarians, fairness and helpfulness become a way of life. Let’s seek to be examples, like Marcus Aurelius, of fairness and kindness in all we do.

Mike

THE ROTARY STRUCTURE

Rotary is made up of three parts: our clubs, Rotary International, and The Rotary Foundation. Together, we work to make lasting change in our communities and around the world.

Rotary is made up of 1.2 million passionate individuals worldwide. We are both an international organization and a local community leader. Together we lead change in our own backyards and across the world.

The Local Rotary Clubs

There are more than 35,000 Rotary clubs worldwide. At club meetings in communities across the globe, our people of action come together to strengthen their connections to friends and neighbors and their commitment to improving lives. Membership in a Rotary club is by invitation only.

Rotary International

Rotary International supports the clubs and the foundation to carry out the mission of Rotary. Rotary clubs are grouped into districts led by district governors. Rotary clubs grouped into about 530 districts. These districts are organized into 34 regional zones. Finally, your Rotary club belongs to the global association, Rotary International (RI), led by the RI president and the RI Board of Directors.

The Rotary Foundation

Since it was founded more than 100 years ago, the Rotary Foundation has spent more than $4 billion on life-changing, sustainable projects. The Rotary Foundation is a non-profit corporation that supports the efforts of Rotary International to achieve world understanding and peace through international humanitarian, educational, and cultural exchange programs. It is supported solely by voluntary contributions.

The Foundation was created in 1917 by Rotary International's sixth president, Arch C. Klumph, as an endowment fund for Rotary "to do good in the world." It has grown from an initial contribution of $26.50 to more than $1 billion. It has one of the largest and most prestigious international fellowship programs in the world.
