MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

A Little Vegas History: Steve Wynn's Start

In 1967 Parry Thomas represented Howard Hughes as both his banker and strawman in the $14 million purchase of the New Frontier Hotel. Steve Wynn had a small interest in the Frontier and was happy to get out as he learned that several of the silent partners had 'histories'. Steve takes his stake and Parry backs him financially and introduces him to the right people to start a liquor distributorship. It's now 1971 and Steve sets his sights on a 160' wide sliver of property fronting Flamingo, just south of Caesars Palace. Howard Hughes owns the property and is leasing it to Caesars as a parking lot for $1,000 per month.

Steve asks Parry to introduce him to Hughes' LV real estate guy, Herb Knoll. Steve offers Herb $1 million for the property. Herb says, 'Hughes doesn't sell anything'. But Steve knows that Hughes is leasing a parking lot next to the Landmark Hotel for $10,000 a month from former Lt. Governor, Cliff Jones and Hughes has an option to buy the lot for $1 million. Steve tells Herb, 'You can take the million and buy the Landmark lot and save the $120,000 a year'. . . No dice.

Steve goes to Parry Thomas, explains the deal and asks for the $1 million loan. Steve doesn't know that Cliff Jones owes the bank big money, and the bank holds the Landmark parking lot as collateral. Parry loves the deal and calls Bill Gay, Hughes' current consigliere. Parry tells Bill, 'Its time for Howard to sell the Caesar's lot and buy the Landmark lot. I'm financing the guy who will cut the deal'. Bill Gay faxes the deal to Hughes, now residing in Florida, and Hughes says, 'Do It'.

Steve has the parcel and starts designing a Barbary Coast type casino, right next to Caesars. Cliff Perlman, head of Caesars, isn't happy. Caesars buys the property from Steve for $2.25 million. Steve uses the profits, and another loan from Parry, to buy a large stake in the Golden Nugget. At age 31 Steve Wynn becomes the CEO of the Golden Nugget and the rest is history.

“OUR ROTARY HISTORY”

DATELINE MARCH 17, 1923

HEAD ON COLLISION CAR CRASH

We learned from Dr. Michael Green that the first newspaper mention of our Las Vegas Rotary Club was in the weeks following its Feb 23, 1923, chartering. The newspaper headline read “LAS VEGAS ROTARIANS NOW IN RUNNING ORDER.”

However, the adjacent headline in the “Las Vegas Age” newspaper (March 17, 1923) detailed a more tragic tale: the serious car accident involving the wife and young son of one of our own charter members: Dr. William S. Park, Charter Member & Club Vice President. Dr. Park (age 44) was the only dentist in Las Vegas at the time. Mary Belle Park (age 43), her 7-year-old son, John William Park, and another young friend, Brent Abbott, were in a head-on collision about 1 P.M. on Thursday afternoon, as they were driving in to school. A Las Vegas City gravel truck “cut-the-corner” at Stewart & 5th Street (today known as Las Vegas Blvd in front of where the current Zappo’s Headquarters is now located).

The City gravel truck was driven by a Mr. Roy Miller. Now, quoting from the newspaper: “There was no chance for Mrs. Park to avoid the truck and the two came together with such force that Brent Abbott was thrown through the windshield, receiving one severe cut, which narrowly missed destroying his right eye, and other cuts of lesser importance. John William Park received several cuts and bruises, the most severe being a cut in the neck which very narrowly missed the jugular vein. Mrs. Park was severely bruised and unconscious for some time after the accident. Her injuries, fortunately, proved not very serious. All the victims of the accident will soon be fully recovered. The driver of the truck admitted being at fault in cutting the corner, and it understood that the city will pay the expense of repairing Mrs. Park’s car, which was badly demolished.” The newspaper article made no mention of the gravel truck driver’s injuries, if there were any.

And now, you know a little more of “Our Rotary History.”
David Jones.
