

Dr. Nancy J. Uscher

Dean of the College of Fine Arts

Nancy J. Uscher is Dean of the College of Fine Arts and presidential professor of music. She oversees seven departments and schools, eight curated gallery spaces, including the Marjorie Barrick Museum of Art, six theatre venues, and the UNLV Performing Arts Center. Prior to joining UNLV in 2016, Uscher was president of Cornish College of the Arts in Seattle for five years. Before that, she was provost for seven years—and for six months co-acting president—of the California

Institute of the Arts, where she also was on the music faculty. Uscher previously spent 12 years at the University of New Mexico as professor of music, and, at various times, associate provost, department chair and center director. She also taught in the women studies program.

A concert violist, Uscher earned her bachelor's degree in music at the Eastman School of Music of the University of Rochester in Rochester, NY, her master's degree in music at the State University of New York at Stony Brook, and her Ph.D. from New York University. She also holds a certificate of advanced study and A.R.C.M. from the Royal College of Music in London and also studied at The Juilliard School in New York City.

Uscher had an international career as a violist that spanned more than two decades, including six years as co-principal violist of the Jerusalem Symphony Orchestra and performances on six continents. She has recorded works of Mendelssohn, Shostakovich and Hindemith for the Stereophile and Musical Heritage Society labels. In addition to guest teaching and coaching in more than 20 countries, Uscher has authored two books and more than a score of articles, mainly for music publications. She is a past board member of the Association of Independent Colleges of Art and Design, and past vice chair and board member of the American Composers Forum.

This is the time of year when students everywhere look forward to the end of the school year and, for some, graduation. Even as Rotarians we look forward to the end of the Rotary Year and, for some, graduation from the 25 Club. Yet this year, graduation ceremonies are being cancelled or otherwise rescheduled and I was reminded of the 'interruption' in the schedule of our recent Global Grant Scholar, Chantay BenShimon, in early October, having finished her studies in conflict resolution in Israel, and working in Tel Aviv, ready to come home to the USA, only to find her safety and return in jeopardy.

Chantay ultimately made her way back home safely in the Fall, moving forward with determination and unwavering optimism. Her work in Tel Aviv involved working with US and Israeli students toward a common goal of understanding and conflict resolution. How ironic when we think about the events that have unfolded in our schools of higher education in the recent days.

Since her return home, Chantay continues her work remotely with the same organization. It was our sincere hope that Chantay might be able to visit at a lunch meeting, to share impactful and meaningful stories with us. However, due to some health issues, she has been unable to do so. Recently she posted the following on Facebook, which was shared with me by PP Karen Whisenhunt, which I felt should be shared, equally ironic if we think of the message of our speaker last week, Amy Mewborn:

"This past year has certainly been challenging, but through it all, I'm fortunate to still be here, moving forward. Despite new ongoing health challenges, my determination and optimism are unwavering, and I'm still here. I've also experienced moments of uncertainty that test one's spirit - the traumatic and tragic reality of war, yet I'm still here. In a world where indescribable suffering and divisive hatred are spreading like a wildfire, my hope in humanity remains, and I am grateful to still be here to continue doing my small part in building bridges that will hopefully one day lead towards a more peaceful reality for all humans. My wish for myself in the upcoming year is to stay unapologetically authentic to my values, no matter what."

Thank you Chantay 'for being you and still being here.
